The bidder shall observe highest standard of ethics during bidding process and execution of the project.

1. “corrupt practice” means the offering, giving, receiving or soliciting of any thing of value to influence the action of a public official in the procurement process or in contract execution; and

2. ‘Fraudulent practice’ means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence the selection process or execution of a contract which is detrimental to the TTDC and includes collusive practice among the bidders during selection process, designed to establish prices at artificial, non-competitive levels and to deprive the TTDC of the benefits of free and open competition.

3 The TTDC will reject a proposal for award if it determines that the Bidder recommended for award has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for the contract in question.

4 Whereas the technical specifications and other tender conditions have been specified to the extent of receiving a good product and service in the interest of corporation, if the bidder suppresses and/or furnishes faulty facts and resorts to any other action with mala fide action with the only intention of bagging the order at any cost or supplying the products which are not of the best quality or in violation of tender specifications, then the corporation or any of its official are in no way responsible for any subsequent loss/damage arising out of such mala fide action.

The bidder alone is solely responsible for all such liabilities arising out of any fraudulent actions.

13 Evaluation of bid

The bid will be evaluated based on the manpower charges quoted for three years as in schedule of the price bid (cover-B). While evaluating the total cost, the taxes, applicable on the day of quotations shall be taken into consideration. Subsequently, deductions or additions of the taxes will not affect the ranking of the tenders. However, any or all mandatory taxes, levies, duties etc., increase may be considered on submission of proof of the same.

1 If the T.T.D.C considers that any tender is unworkably low or very exorbitant indicating that tenderer has not understood the implications in the contract or is attempting either to frustrate the object of the T.T.D.C or exploit the Corporation, it can debar such tenderer permanently or for such period as it may deem fit from entering into any contract with the T.T.D.C.
